

Department of Economics Major Plan of Study

Fall 2012 or Later

Preliminary OR Final

This form can be completed using the Advisement Report, located in the Student Administration System, under My Academics.

Economics Foundation Courses:

Principles of Micro & Macro: ECON 1201 & ECON 1202, OR ECON 1200: _____

Statistics: STAT 1000Q OR STAT 1100Q: _____

Calculus: MATH 1071Q, 1110Q, 1126Q, 1131Q OR 1151Q: _____

Economics Core Courses:

At least 24 credits in economics 2000-level or above. Intermediate Microeconomics, ECON 2201, and Intermediate Macroeconomics, ECON 2202, are required. One of these core courses must be a W course. You must have at least 9 credits (3 courses) from one or both following sequences: ECON 2300 series and/or 3000-level or above.

Course:	Grade:	ECON 2000+:	Grade:	ECON 2300 series &/or 3000+:	Grade:
ECON 2201	_____	ECON _____	_____	ECON _____	_____
ECON 2202	_____	ECON _____	_____	ECON _____	_____
ECON _____ W _____				ECON _____	_____

Related Courses:

At least 12 credits, 2000-level or above, in courses closely related to economics, but offered by departments other than economics. See Department website for list of pre-approved related subjects. Courses not on the pre-approved related list must be approved by the Undergraduate Academic Advisor.

Courses:

45-Credit Rule:

At least 45 credits, including major and related courses, must be 2000-level or above. Usually nine additional credits, or three classes, are needed in combination with major and related courses for a grand total of 45 credits.

Courses:

- | | |
|--|---|
| <input type="checkbox"/> All General Education Requirements Met | <input type="checkbox"/> 120 Total Credits Earned |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Minimum of 2.0 GPA in Economics Core Courses
ECON GPA: _____ | <input type="checkbox"/> Minimum 2.0 Overall GPA
Cumulative GPA: _____ |

Student Name: _____

Student ID: _____

Advisor Signature: _____

Date: _____

CLAS General Education Requirements (BA)

For a list of eligible general education courses, please see <http://clasadvising.uconn.edu/general-education-requirements/>.

Second Language

Check one:

- 3 years high school level
- 2 years high school level PLUS 2nd year intermediate UConn level
- 1st year elementary AND 2nd year intermediate UConn levels
- Successful completion of language equivalency exam

Writing

- ENGL 1010 or 1011, or ENGL 91002 and 91003
- Two “W” (writing intensive) courses, one of which must be in ECON at the 2000-level or above

ENGL

ECON 2000+ W

2nd W course (any subject & level)

Quantitative

- Three “Q” courses. See Economics Foundations Courses for MATH and STAT requirements.

MATH

STAT

3rd Q course

Content Area One – Arts & Humanities

- Five courses from at least four different subject areas
- At least one course from each of A-D, fifth course can come from A-E
- Two courses can also be used to fulfill another course in Content Areas Two or Three.

Area A
Art

Area B
Literature

Area C
History

Area D
Philosophy &
Ethical Analysis

Area E (A-E)
World Cultures

Content Area Two – Social Sciences

- Two courses from two different subject areas
- One course can also be used to fulfill another course in Content Area One, Two or Three.

1st course

2nd course

Content Area Three – Science & Technology

- Two courses from two different subject areas
- At least one course must be a 4-credit lab

Laboratory course

2nd course

NOTE: Students must take courses from six different subject areas in Content Area One, Two and Three.

Content Area Four – Diversity & Multiculturalism

One course must cover an international field of study

International

2nd course

- One course can also be used to fulfill another course in Content Area One, Two and Three.